Staré – Sztáray family, church

Up to now there is an unexplained murder, phenomenal one-handed pianist and precious worthy liturgical robe... This is also connected with village Staré where significant noble Sztáray dynasty come from. Visit beautiful local church and experience its interior and mysterious crypt. Near the castle there is also a mansion – once palatial family residence.

Strážske – church and park

Strážske is a town which is closely associated with the chemical plant... But there you can also find old and new mansions in the large park, an interesting chestnut alley, unusual aboveground crypt of worldly-minded patrons of the local church and a cemetery dedicated to the First World War fallen soldiers. All these have got some stories to discover... Would you like to get them acknowledged there?

Brekovský hrad / Brekov castle

One of two stone castles, which originally had guarded the Brekov entrance gate and important trade route towards Galicia and Poland, is being repaired for several years now. Let's accompany us to discover what has been renovated in recent years and you would get to know what does this fortress have to do with King Matthew Corvinus, where the underground caves are situated and the like... Probably you will meet the mysterious black horse...
